GEORGIA ELLEXSON SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Georgia Ellexson was an attorney who dedicated her career to public service. She was a true pioneer, one of only 13 women in the graduating class at the Arizona State University College of Law in 1974. For many years she served as Chief of the Appellate Section for the Office of the Attorney General where she represented the State of Arizona and argued cases before our State Supreme Court as well as the United States Supreme Court. She spent the last 14 years of her career as Chief of the Appellate Section for the United States Attorney, District of Arizona.

In addition to being a distinguished lawyer, Georgia Ellexson was also a mentor to hundreds of lawyers who benefitted from her ability to impart wise counsel in the cause of justice. Her dedication and hard work earned her the Director's Award for Excellence as an Assistant United States Attorney.

The Public Lawyers Section of the State Bar of Arizona is proud to once again award a scholarship of $500 in the name of Georgia Ellexson to a law school graduate who demonstrates a strong desire to serve the community as a public lawyer.

To be considered for this award, please provide the following information:

I. SUBMIT A CURRENT RESUME.

II. STATEMENT OF INTEREST.

In 500 words or less, please describe your background and future plans in public law including information about summer work experience, clinical and externship programs, student pro bono activities, classes related to public law, related employment prior to law school; and any additional information which demonstrates your commitment to public service.

III. DESCRIBE ANY SPECIAL FINANCIAL NEEDS.

Return the requested information to the Office of Admissions, Financial Aid, and Student Life, Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University. Personal interviews with members of the Public Lawyers Section may be held as determined by committee members.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: April 5, 2013.