

Tom Morrissey, Senior Director - IT/Litigation

Tom is responsible for the development and implementation of technology in support of the Office of the General Counsel at Purdue Pharma LP. Tom is responsible for all aspects of collection, preservation, discovery and production of documents and data in support of legal matters. Tom works closely with counsel, vendors and consultants in support of these efforts. His experience prior to Purdue was as the Manager of Practice Systems for Summation Legal Technologies,/CaseVault in New York. Prior to that, he was the Manager of Practice Support Services at Kelley Drye & Warren LLP in New York. Tom has been in the legal profession for over 27 years as a litigation paralegal, paralegal manager and litigation support manager. Tom has spoken and presented at many conferences over the years as well as written articles and white papers on legal and discovery topics.

Tom has a BBA degree, Paralegal Certificate and trained MCSE. Tom is an officer of ILTA (VP Law Department Steering Committee and is past President of the National Association of Litigation Support Managers (NALSM) and the East Coast Association of Litigation Support Managers (ECALSM).